

Is everything true what the

I In your meditation (prayer) you will find your fulfillment. You will find the inspiration that I am sending you.

Take it as a caress from the universe. Keep connecting we can talk together. Creation lies in the hand of God.

For humans their task is to center themselves in the divine in order to grow and develop.

Testify with the life you lead that it means to live according to the advice of God.

Act according to the advice and you will be in tune with the universe. Talk about this and see how it changes your future.

Keep calling to the universe and in the calmness of nature you will find many answers.

Center yourself in nature.

pendulum says?

Everything has been planted into the human soul, everything that is needed to act in order to make a new start.

Understand that being center in the vibrations of the universe entails calling to the universe. You can do this with a pendulum. Ask for and receive the holy grace. Ask the big questions when you call to the universe. The stories of incarnations are many told. All is connected. Human spirit can overinterpret. Testify with your being how you breathe the air that I provide for your future.

It is my will

to give you everything - all you need is to accept - that you need for your fulfillment

Remember all is given (planted) it only needs to be activated through giving yourself into Suffering is mainly the result of not being in tune to what has been given.

Call to me and ask for your fulfillment.

Do as you are guided and let yourself grow and be part of the symphony of the universe.

The tune it plays is love.

It takes humility to surrender to the universe. Never surrender to man. The soul is structured in a way that it is only meant to surrender to the divine.

Talk about this, especially to women. And such is the energy field of Christ.

Love in connection with divine penetrating every cell, shining through every crack, giving

meaning to life on this wonderful earth.

Never be ashamed to love!
